Two 800hp MAN i6 engines mean the Pirelli 1900 can hit a max speed of 45 knots

The 12ft high craft has a 16ft beam

There are large sunpads on the bow and aft deck

The tread pattern of Pirelli's track-racing wet tire is used on the tubes

Pirelli treads water

Tenorib's latest 1900 flagship RIB has been developed as part of Pirelli's Design project, and as a result it is suitably luxurious and well thought out. The whole idea was to build a boat with the sleek design features of a yacht but the sportiness of a RIB. The 60ft boat boasts a 528 gallon fuel tank and two 800hp MAN i6 engines, which result in the Pirelli 1900 hitting an impressive max speed of 45 knots, and a cruising speed of 30 knots. The sun worship takes place on large sunpads on the bow and aft deck. And the Pirelli flourish? The tread pattern of the brand's famous track-racing wet tire is used on the tubes in "celebration of Pirelli's expertise in... extremely wet conditions."
